A special thank you to the Parents:

As we celebrate this season of joy & ponder the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, my heart overflows with gratitude for each of you! Thank you for pouring abundant grace over me as I have navigated my first year as Zion's Youth Director. This has personally been my greatest honor & blessing this year, getting to witness such brave young men & women rise in their callings for the future. There have been times I have wondered if I could ever fill the shoes of those who came before me, but you all have shown me such kindness & grace. Thank you for trusting me with your children, each one uniquely imprinted with God's love. My prayer this season is for each of yours to be answered!

Blessings,
Destiny Rose.
